

PHARMACEUTICAL QUALITY COMPLAINT
=====

Complaint No.: 2024-QC-004
Receipt Date: January 25, 2024
Complaint Channel: Phone (Follow-up email received)

COMPLAINANT INFORMATION

Organization: Riverside Hospital Pharmacy
Contact Name: Sarah Thompson, PharmD, BCPS
Position: Clinical Pharmacy Manager
Phone: (555) 789-0123
Email: sthompson@riversidehospital.org
Account #: RH-45892

PRODUCT DETAILS

Product Name: Metformin HCl Extended Release Tablets
Product Strength: 750mg
National Drug Code (NDC): 12345-678-90
Batch/Lot Number: MET-ER-750-20240118
Manufacturing Date: January 18, 2024
Expiration Date: January 18, 2027
Quantity Involved: 30 bottles (90 tablets each = 2,700 tablets total)
Site of Manufacture: PharmaTech Manufacturing Complex, Building 7, Austin, TX

COMPLAINT CLASSIFICATION

Complaint Category: Labeling Error
Complaint Type: Incorrect Strength Listed on Label
Severity Assessment: Critical
Priority Level: High
Material Affected: Secondary packaging labels

COMPLAINT NARRATIVE

Hospital pharmacy received routine shipment on January 23, 2024. During receiving inspection, pharmacy te

ISSUE IDENTIFIED:
The bottle labels indicate "Metformin HCl ER 500mg" but the carton labels and packing slip correctly stat

DETAILS:
All 30 bottles in shipment have incorrect strength (500mg) on bottle label
Cartons correctly labeled as 750mg
Tablets are correct 750mg strength (verified by imprint)
Mismatch between bottle label and actual product strength
No product dispensed - caught during receiving process

PATIENT SAFETY CONCERN:
This labeling error presents significant patient safety risk. If 500mg labeled product containing actual
- Hypoglycemia
- Lactic acidosis risk
- Other adverse effects from overdosage

REGULATORY IMPACT:
- Violates FDA labeling requirements (21 CFR 201)
- Potential Class II recall situation
- Requires immediate investigation of labeling operations
- Need to determine scope: Is this isolated to one shipment or broader?

IMMEDIATE ACTIONS TAKEN BY CUSTOMER:
All 30 bottles quarantined in secure area

Product not entered into hospital inventory system
Photographs taken of labeling discrepancy
Incident report filed with hospital risk management
Purchasing department notified to hold all receipts of this batch

CUSTOMER REQUESTS:

1. Immediate investigation and root cause analysis
2. Confirmation of scope - how many units affected?
3. Correct strength product replacement ASAP (hospital stock running low)
4. Written response detailing corrective/preventive actions
5. Confirmation that other strengths of Metformin ER not affected

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

- Customer has ordered from this manufacturer for 5+ years
- No previous quality complaints in past 2 years
- Customer relationship: Platinum account (high volume)
- Hospital requires response within 48 hours per their policy

Storage Conditions: Product stored per label requirements in climate-controlled pharmacy (68-75°F, <60% RH)

Samples: Available for retrieval if needed for investigation

Originating Site: PharmaTech Austin Facility

Complaint Date: January 25, 2024

Logged By: Jennifer Martinez, Sr. Quality Specialist

Date Logged: January 25, 2024, 2:30 PM